

With Maui's Girl Scouts

Attention, Girl Scouts

Do you know all the members of your local council? Last year only 26 of our representative women supported this movement. This year 79 are already enrolled and several more from the Lahaina side will no doubt want to back up their large representation of fine girl scouts. The director hopes every girl scout will become acquainted with the members in her district and whenever possible show appreciation for the interest taken by these women. Following are the names:

Mrs. A. B. Brown, Mrs. H. Holt, Mrs. T. B. Linton, Mrs. D. Carey, Mrs. J. M. Pratt, Mrs. E. R. Bevin, Mrs. G. Gossin, Mrs. I. Foss, Mrs. W. Loughier, Mrs. H. W. Rice, Miss L. Gardner, Mrs. F. P. Wailuku

Fifteen scouts met with Miss Crockett and Miss Seibert last Thursday at the Alexander Settlement Kindergarten. Most of the time was devoted to tenderfoot tests and a few worked on the second class tests. Long ball relieved the weary brains and stimulated the sleepy ones.

The report of the beach party held at the Osmer's cottage the preceding week was received too late for last week's paper. But we know how disappointed you will all feel not to hear of our good time, so we will publish it forthwith.

A Wailuku Picnic

Wailuku, March 8, 1922.

"This picnic was the first picnic since our Wailuku Girl Scouts body was organized. It was given on a nice cool day. Each member brought their own lunch and a few potatoes which were baked in the hot sand.

"Mrs. Osmer, Mrs. Childs, Miss Crockett who is now our captain, and Miss Seibert were very kind to take us in their machines to Mrs. Osmer's beach house, and to bring us some oranges, cookies, and lemons for lemonade. They also gave us fudge and other candies.

"We met at the kindergarten right after school and waited for the machine to come. When they came the scouts were divided into three groups and about five girls were in each car. When everybody was ready we left the kindergarten and started for the beach and when we reached there Mrs. Osmer led us to the beach house where we rested for a while. The girls who were going to swim got into their bathing suits. Before going into the water, Miss Seibert showed us how to light a fire when we were out camping. Then she lit the fire for baking the potatoes in the sand while others went in to swim. After a while those who had been in swimming came out of the water and we had our pictures taken by Miss Seibert. We all sat down in the sand and sang our scout songs. Then the ones who had gone in to swim went into the water again. The sun struck our faces with all its might so that our cheeks became sore but we forgot that when we came out and ate some baked potatoes. Oh, how good they tasted with a little salt.

"After our supper was over and we had rested a while we had our closing exercises and then we played long ball. We played for a long while. Soon afterwards Mrs. Osmer started for home and then Mr. Childs came along and took a second group of scouts home. The last scouts got into Miss Seibert's machine and left the beach. We left about the time the sun was in the West. We had a very jolly time and hope we can go on a hike some other day. We all thank Mrs. Osmer for the kindness shown and for the interest taken by her in our scout work.

"T. NISHIMURA."

Lahaina

"At the meeting of Friday afternoon the scouts met at 1:45 and 13 girls were present. The time was spent on scout business and signalling which was witnessed by Captain Van Kuren and Lieutenant Seong.

"The scouts of the Star of Bethlehem and Wild Rose troops are to be second class scouts before long, no doubt. We are starting now to win the health winners badge and the merit badges also.

"The second basketball game between the St. Anthony's seniors and the Star of Bethlehem Scouts was played at the Lahaina armory on Wednesday evening. The Lahaina scouts won by the score of 44-19. Admission to the game was 25 cents and we made $26. This is quite a sum and will add greatly to our treasury.

"We decided to spend the $5 which we earned some time ago, to buy a troop flag. We also earned $3 during clean up week.

"All the scouts have ordered their uniforms and we are expecting them to arrive very soon.

"CAROLINE RICKARD,

"Corres. Sec'y. L. G. S."

The Wild Rose Troop has changed its meeting day from Friday to Thursday. The Star of Bethlehem held its usual Friday meeting at the Baldwin House. Miss Seibert attended the meeting of the Mokihana troop held at the school house. Two scouts have passed their tenderfoot tests and the others almost "pau." Captain Shaffer is anxious to register her troop before Scout Day. The director hasn't heard of any hikes taken by these scouts. Don't fail to report an interesting event like a hike, picnic or party, girls.

Makawao

A sunny day was welcome indeed to the Sweet Pea scouts. Two more scouts have passed off their fire tests. Captain Yap and Lieutenant Miller are giving much time and thought to this troop and their efforts are rewarded; for, though the troop numbers but eight, they are all the "real stuff". Bandaging was the main feature—all scouts taking leading parts. A troop photograph album was purchased in order to preserve the activities of Makawao's first girl scouts to the future generations.

Spreckelsville and Keahua

"Now, listen my children and you shall hear"—about the eight Keahua scouts who have worked hard and faithfully under the direction of their captain, Mrs. Foster Robinson, to finish their tenderfoot tests. Wednesday the planer thoughtful Carnation scouts planned a joint meeting and party for these young "scuffdills" on the school lawn. First the presentation ceremony was conducted. The director gave tenderfoot pins to two girls from the Spreckelsville troop: May Kekua and Ayako Yoshioka; and to seven girls from Keahua (one girl was absent): Yoshiko Akemoto, Hinayo Akemoto, Mabel Dolim, Olive Dolim, Misao Ito, Fugiyu Matsuo and Lydia Dolim.

After this ceremony a short business meeting was held, after which ten Spreckelsville scouts played against the seven Keahua and three Spreckelsville scouts in a most exciting game of baseball. The score was 16 to 6. A great deal of time was spent in finding the balls which rolled over and under the teacher's cottage. But our friends, the Boy Scouts, ever ready to do a good turn, demonstrated their ability to wriggle through "No man's land" and rescue the aforesaid balls.

After this, delicious punch was served by our hostesses (the Carnations) and they crowned the day by singing two very original and clever songs to their Keahua sisters.

Kahului

The director arrived at the Community House late Wednesday afternoon just in time to present four of the Roselani scouts with their tenderfoot pins. Following are the names: Puna Kiakona, Helen Kauwenale, Emma Kahopili and Sueko Yoshida. Meetings are to be held on Monday's hereafter instead of Wednesday, to fit in better with Miss Seibert's schedule. The Roselani girls are plotting a big surprise soon—watch the papers, girls!

The "Egg-beater" is no longer a Girl Scout—Who will write the obituary? And what shall we call the brand new Chevrolet?

Captains and Lieutenants of Maui Girl Scouts, attention! An important meeting at the Spreckelsville beach house, Saturday, March 18th, at 11:30 a. m. A full attendance is desired.
